INTRODUCTORY

What is the national origin of the family name of Stackhouse? (G.S.)

The Stackhouse family is one which historians say came to Philadelphia from England on the ship "Welcome" with William Penn in 1682. The American pioneer was Thomas Stackhouse who came from the small village of Stackhouse in Yorkshire, according to the biography of Powell Stackhouse (1840-1927), Philadelphia iron-master.

Among our ancestors of this surname were a Joshua and Margorie Stackhouse. Next in line was a Benjamin Stackhouse, born April 3, 1763, who married Martha Saxton, born Oct. 3, 1766, daughter of John and Alice Saxton. Benjamin and Martha settled in Middleton Twp., Bucks County, Pennsylvania. To this marriage, eleven children were born.

Children were as follows, with year of birth: Marjorie B. 1788; Alice B., 1790; Owen B. 1792; Evan B., 1794; Ann B., 1796; Joshua B., 1799; Joseph B.,1801; Elizabeth B., 1803;

John B., 1805; Benjamin B., 1808; and Samuel B., 1810.

When our next immediate ancestor, Owen B. Stackhouse was ten years old, the family moved to a farm one & one-half miles east of Hanoverton, Hanover Twp., Columbiana Co., Ohio. This farm was known at the time as the Ruth Heston farm.

Owen B. Stackhouse, born Sept. 20, 1792, married Tacy Heston and moved to a farm one mile north of Green Hill, Columbiana Co., Ohio. There was not a stick of timber cut off this place at that time.

Owen could not read or write his own name. He raised mules and buffalos. This farm held the name of Stackhouse nearly 107 years. There were seven children to this marriage. Later, Owen married Rachel McNeely, to which was born one child, Ann Stackhouse, born Aug. 16, 1818. Said Ann married Chris Albright, born July 11, 1816. Ann died Dec. 8, 1896. Chris died Jan. 26, 1892.

The seven children born to Owen and Tacy Heston Stackhouse were as follows, with birthdates and marriages: John, born

Aug. 4, 1819, died , married Mary Crow June 16, 1843. (Later John remarried L. Balker.); Martha, born Apr. 5, 1821, died Feb. 3, 1897, married Robert H. Garrigues, born 1795, died 1876; Jesse, born june 20, 1824, died Sept. 8, 1863, married Elizabeth Garrigues, born Jan. 27, 1848, died 1907; Benjamin, born Nov. 1, 1827, died Jan. 4, 1915, married Eliza Jane Guthrie, born Sept. 5, 1828, died June 3, 1882. (Benj. remarried Kate Davidson,); Amos, born Dec. 1, 1831, died June 6, 1905, married Alice Reeder, born July 20, 1830, died Jan. 19, 1888; Sarah Jane, born Nov. 17, 1846, died married Zoph Weldon, born , died 19[illegible]; George, born Oct. 27, 1849, died June 28, 1931, married Matilda Marshall, remarried Jane Turnipseed, died 1903. Remarried Marietta Starkey in 1905. She died Mar. 1931.

Our next immediate ancestor, Amos Stackhouse, after marrying Alice M. Reeder on Aug. 18, 1853, soon moved to the old log house near the stone quarry between Bayard and Minerva just off what was in later years to become the Lincoln Highway, also known as United States route #30. They bought some land from Amos' father, Owen, and built and moved onto it May 2, 1854, in the sled. They cleared and built more to the house and lived there the balance of their lives. Their first winter there was not the brightest. Their mule team had very little to eat, more than what they could get of leaves and underbrush. Eight children were born of this union, all on this farm, in West Twp., Columbiana Co., Ohio.
